DIGEST

Present law provides that a person, otherwise eligible for parole, convicted of a first felony offense shall be eligible for parole consideration upon serving one-third of the sentence imposed, and upon conviction of a second felony offense, such person shall be eligible for parole consideration upon serving one-half of the sentence imposed. Present law further provides that a person convicted of a third or subsequent felony offense shall not be eligible for parole.

Present law provides that a person convicted of a crime of violence and not otherwise ineligible for parole shall serve at least 85% of the sentence imposed before being eligible for parole.

Proposed law provides that notwithstanding present law, an offender upon a first felony conviction shall be eligible for parole upon serving 25% of the sentence imposed if the offender:

- (1) Has not been convicted of a crime of violence.
- (2) Has not been convicted of a sex offense.
- (3) Has not been sentenced as a habitual offender.
- (4) Is not otherwise ineligible for parole.

Provides that nothing in proposed law shall prevent an offender from reapplying for parole in accordance with present law.

Proposed law provides that it shall apply only to persons who are sentenced on or after August 15, 2011.

Proposed law provides that any savings realized by the provisions of proposed law shall be appropriated by the La. Legislature to DPS&C for reimbursements for the costs of incarceration of offenders awaiting probation and parole revocation hearings, for other local corrections programs that reduce recidivism, for expanded treatment programs, and for expanded probation and parole services.
